

ACTIVE SUPERVISION

WHAT IS ACTIVE SUPERVISION?

Moving continuously, scanning all areas of the classroom and interacting positively, frequently and authentically.

Increases student engagement and appropriate behavior

Quick assistance to students

Can frequently use positive feedback

Move: Continuous Movement

Scan: Visually sweep/see all areas and students

Interact: Proximity, provide frequent prompts and feedback

Use data: Be proactive

All types of instruction

Transitioning students: hallways, before school, after school

SUMMARY

Move continuously, Scan all interactions and areas, Interact positively, frequently and authentically

Research affirms the introduction of active supervision produced a classroom-wide decrease in minor behavioral incidents. (Simonsen, Fairbanks, Briesch, Myers, & Sugai, 2008)